

A BILL FOR AN ORDINANCE

RELATING TO COLLECTION AND DISPOSAL OF REFUSE.

BE IT ORDAINED by the People of the City and County of Honolulu:

SECTION 1. Purpose and intent. The purpose of this ordinance is to authorize the City to charge for City-provided refuse collection and disposal services.

SECTION 2. Chapter 9, Article 4, Revised Ordinances of Honolulu 1990 ("Collection and Disposal Charges"), is amended by adding two new sections to be appropriately designated by the Revisor of Ordinances and to read as follows:

"Sec. 9-4. Collection and drop off disposal charges for dwelling units, accessory dwelling units or multi-unit residential buildings."

- (a) A monthly charge will be assessed per dwelling unit, accessory dwelling unit, or dwelling unit within a multi-unit residential building for all refuse collected and removed by the division on regularly scheduled collection days by automated or manual collection from such dwelling units, accessory dwelling units, or multi-unit dwelling units, in accordance with the schedule in subsection (d).
- (b) A charge will be assessed per dwelling unit, accessory dwelling unit, or dwelling unit within a multi-unit residential building for all bulky waste collected and removed by the division through the appointment system from such dwelling units, accessory dwelling units, or multi-unit residential buildings in accordance with the schedule in subsection (d).
- (c) A charge will be assessed for the drop off and disposal of refuse and other solid wastes at convenience centers and transfer stations from dwelling units, accessory dwelling units, or multi-unit residential buildings not receiving curbside automated or manual refuse collection service from the city, as described in subsection (a), in accordance with the schedule in subsection (d).

SECTION 3. Section 9-1.2, Revised Ordinances of Honolulu 1990 ("Definitions"), is amended by adding new definitions of "accessory dwelling unit," "dwelling unit," and "nonprofit organization" to be appropriately inserted and to read as follows:

"Accessory dwelling unit" means the same as defined under Section 21-10.1.

"Dwelling unit" means the same as defined under Section 21-10.1.

"Nonprofit organization" means an association, corporation, or other entity, organized and operated exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, literary, cultural, educational, recreational, or other nonprofit purposes, no part of the assets, income or earnings of which inures to the benefit of any individual or member thereof, and whose charter or other enabling act contains a provision that, in the event of dissolution, the assets owned by such association, corporation or other entity will be distributed to another association, corporation, or other entity organized and operated exclusively for nonprofit purposes, and which further qualifies for exemption from the general excise tax provisions of HRS Chapter 237, as amended, and under Section 501 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended."

SECTION 4. Section 9-1.5, Revised Ordinances of Honolulu 1990, is amended to read as follows:

"Sec. 9-1.5 Limitations to collection by refuse crews.

The division shall not collect:

- (a) Any soil, rock, concrete, explosives, liquids, radioactive materials, construction debris, demolition debris, commercial cooking oil waste, or commercial FOG waste; except that used oil may be collected under a curbside collection service established pursuant to Section 2-8.2;
- (b) Any refuse, green waste, and other recyclable materials as designated by the director not prepared for collection as provided by Section 9-1.4;
- (c) Any refuse, green waste, and other recyclable materials as designated by the director not placed for collection as provided by Section 9-1.4;
- (d) Any rubbish consisting of tree branches, plant cuttings, vines, and other similar materials exceeding one cubic yard in volume for any single regular collection in manual collection areas;

A BILL FOR AN ORDINANCE

- (e) Any refuse, green waste, and other recyclable materials as designated by the director placed for collection in a place which is unsafe or is likely to cause injury to the persons collecting said refuse, green waste, and other recyclable materials; or
- (f) Any refuse ~~[from any business]~~, green waste, and other recyclable materials as designated by the director, where the [owner thereof shall have] party liable for the collection charges billed to a business, nonprofit organization, governmental building, dwelling unit, accessory dwelling unit, or multi-unit residential building has failed to pay the [service] collection charges [hereinafter provided.] set forth in this chapter.

SECTION 5. Section 9-3.3, Revised Ordinances of Honolulu 1990, is amended to read as follows:

"Sec. 9-3.3 Service to government buildings.

The division may provide refuse collection services to buildings of the federal, ~~[and] state, and city~~ governments upon request from the authorities responsible for such buildings. The charge for service to such governmental buildings, other than buildings used for residential purposes, ~~[shall]~~ will be that which is applicable to a place of business. For services rendered to buildings used for residential purposes, the charges ~~[shall]~~ will be ~~[established by agreement. Such agreement shall be executed by the director of budget and fiscal services, with the recommendation of the director, on behalf of the city]~~ that which is applicable to dwelling units, accessory dwelling units, or multi-unit residential buildings, as set forth in this chapter."

A BILL FOR AN ORDINANCE

SECTION 6. Section 9-4.1, Revised Ordinances of Honolulu 1990, is amended to read as follows:

"Sec. 9-4.1 Collection charges for businesses[.] and nonprofit organizations.

(a) For Refuse Generated by Businesses and Nonprofit Organizations and Collected by Manual Collection.

(1) Unit Charges for Collection.

(A) Unit Charge for Collection Not Exceeding Two Times Per Week. For all refuse collected and removed by the division on regularly scheduled collection days from places of business[.] and nonprofit organizations, but not exceeding two times per week, there shall be a unit charge or a minimum charge, whichever is greater, assessed against each business and nonprofit organization served by the division in accordance with the following schedule:
